

NFR (Not For Resale) Agreement

Not for resale (NFR) copies. The developer (Markzware) shall supply the distributor, reseller, trainer, or product reviewer (named below), one license code each product requested that will be designated for the individual's exclusive use. This will remain the property of the developer (Markzware). This license code must not be sold, resold, or given away to any unauthorized party. The developer may, from time-to-time, supply additional not for resale license codes, which the reseller must dispose of only by means agreed with the developer. NFR software is intended for evaluation purposes only.

This agreement supersedes all previous NFR agreements.
